

Cardinia Environment Coalition AGM

Tuesday 29 November at 16 Purton Street in Pakenham

Elizabeth Frazer

Elizabeth Fraser, President of the Cardinia Environment Coalition welcomed the everyone.

The guest speaker, Andrew Barr Manager of Infrastructure Cardinia Shire showed a Power-Point and spoke about the interesting Deep Creek redevelopment - a project for the future of the region.

Andrew Barr

Lindsay McNaught

The Annual Report of Committee of Management was read by the President Elizabeth Fraser.

The Financial statement for 2015/2016 was read by the Treasurer Lindsay McNaught.

Cr Graeme Moore then thanked the office bearers and ordinary committee members for their work during the past year and all the positions were declared open.

Conducted the election, Elisabeth Fraser was voted in as President and Secretary, Pat Canty as Vice President and Lindsay McNaught as Treasurer and all the committee members positions were filled. The Mayor of Cardinia, Cr Brett Owen then welcomed the new committee.

Cr Graeme Moore

Pat Canty

Sue Harris

Sue Harris, from the Friends of Mt Cannibal spoke about their booklet 'Mt Cannibal - a Nature Walker's Guide'.

Alfred Klink, from the Friends of Kurth Kiln spoke about their new booklet 'Walking for Pleasure' featuring Kurth Kiln Regional Park and its tracks, their environment and history, and today's users.

Ms Macwhirter spoke about her book 'Harewood, Western Port - Stardust to Us'.

Alfred Klink

Glenn McMillan, SREA, thanks Elizabeth, Lindsay and Carol Hosking. Delicious Pizza for everyone ended the evening.

Ms Macwhirter